

Terms and Conditions – spellingframe.co.uk

Introduction

All content on our website (spellingframe.co.uk) is owned by us (Mathsframe Ltd) and is subject to UK and international copyright and property laws.

Our content cannot be copied, shared or reproduced without our express permission.

We reserve the right to change which parts of the website are available without charge at any time.

Subscriptions are for non-commercial use only. Subscriptions are not transferable.

Single-user subscriptions

A single-user subscription allows one named student access to our content for 12 months. They will be provided with a username and password. This information must not be shared unless this has been expressly permitted by ourselves.

It is not possible to log in on more than one computer/device (or browser) at a time.

Payments for a single-user subscription are made via a third-party (SagePay). We do not store payment details. Subscriptions will not renew automatically.

Whole School subscriptions

Whole school subscriptions can be purchased for a specified number of classes. A school subscription will last for 12 months.

For each class subscribed there will be one teacher login provided and up to 40 individual student logins.

A single student's logins must not be shared between different students.

Unless expressly agreed with us in advance, each school must have their own separate subscription, and subscriptions cannot be shared by multiple schools, whether within the same ownership, academy trust or federation or otherwise.

We reserve the right to temporarily suspend and/or cancel unpaid subscriptions.

GDPR

- We do not, and never will, share data with third parties
- Our data is encrypted and stored securely, in accordance with GDPR guidelines, in the UK
- We do not store credit card details. All card payments are processed by Sage

Data we store

- Name and address of school

- Name and email address of every teacher registered for a class
- Student's names (if provided), their class, their spelling group (if provided) and their spelling scores for each test that they take

Providing the names of children is not necessary (you could use their initials) but it makes them easier for you to identify when viewing test results.

Every child registered has a username and password automatically generated.

The children's scores for their spelling tests can be viewed by their teacher and by the school administrator (the person that set up the account). This information is not shared publicly and will never be shared with third parties.

You have the right to be forgotten. We will delete your personal data upon request.
